

Lemon Mandarin

Your own lemon tree rich in flavors and strength.

- Maximum potency. Up to 30% strength.
- Super intense flavors. Loud and citrusy flavor profile.
- Robust and resilient. Thrives in various growing conditions.
- Grow your own tree. The biggest in our photoperiod collection.
- Extractor's treasure. This seed will infuse your concentrates with vibrant citrus flavor.

This seed is for lovers of everything big. Lemon Mandarin is a result of our work crossing two delicious citrus seeds: our keeper Lemonade cut and Tangie (Crockett's Family Farms selection). We made sure she combines the finest attributes of her parents such as a euphoric, invigorating effect, insane frost production and a bittersweet citrusy flavorene profile. Lemon Mandarin is Ideal for lovers of huge trees and XXL returns: she can reach heights of up to 200 cm while showing off extreme resiliency and lots of side-branching. Her aroma is a perfect blend of Tangie, lemon zest and the soothing sweetness of ripe mandarin, enveloping the senses in a profoundly pungent tangerine-lemon fragrance that lingers long after smoking. She performs perfectly both indoors and outdoors, and her impressive growth and aromatic allure make her ideal for growers seeking a truly outstanding seed with a complex citrusy fragrance. Based on our experience, we advise to perform Scrogging or any other type of support as the branches might not be able to handle the weight of the buds. Indoors, to achieve the maximum return per plant, place no more than 2-3 plants per square meter, as this variety gets really bushy. She might also benefit from more frequent defoliation as she grows plenty of large, wide fan leaves and might need help with aeration later in the flowering stage.
